

CAC Meeting 10/12/09 Minutes

- Spruce Up Odyssey/Family Fun Night
 - Review
 - 51 % participation school wide
 - Information kiosks not as successful as hoped
 - Stump the teacher was a hit
 - Next Year
 - Have jobs that younger children can do at Spruce Up besides outdoor clean up
 - Possibly table or locker washing
- I Love to Read Day
 - SUCCESS
- Club's Choice Fundraiser
 - Numbers of participants down from last year, but units sold/person up slightly
 - $ raised down from last year
 - Too early in the year for the fundraiser?
- Read-a-thon
 - Only 30 participants
 - Raised $678 for the media center
 - How can we promote it more next year?
- Book Fair
 - No #s yet
- Blue Sky Guide
 - Need an envelope marked for Amy Burge
 - Currently at 3, with 5 more orders for sure coming in (if we get 10 sold, we get $100 for CAC)
- Evergreens and Poinsettias
 - Goes out Wed., 10/14 (through 10/28)
 - Funds raised go to individual student accounts
 - Audubon prices went up this year, good motivator for students to raise $
- Pancake Breakfast
 - Sled-a-thon
 - Interest from staff?
 - Possibly have middle school helpers
 - Blood Drive
 - Need at least 20 donors
 - Will be here a minimum of 3 hours
- Winter Carnival
 - Possible time change from 6-8 to 6-8:30 allowing more time for families to complete all activities.
 - Silent Auction
 - Donation request letters are being sent out
 - Silent Auction will end at 7:30
 - Winners will be posted on a large sheet of paper and then displayed in the hall.
 - Possibly have 2 separate auctions – one for parents, one for students
 - Student auction using tickets?
 - Students write names on prepaid tickets. Pick up item at end of event or later.
 - Adult auction silent bidding
 - When they get bidding number, adults must submit a phone number in which they can be reached if they have won an item and are not present.